of this new world, a map that is identical to the territory it represents. The forces that have escaped us display themselves to us in all their power. Capitalism, Workers do not produce themselves, they produce a power independent of themselves. The success of this production, the abundance it generates, feudalism. is experienced by the producers as an abundance of dispossession. As their alienated products accumulate, all time and (land, space mines, become foreign plants, to etc, them. The spectacle is capital) the map of this new workers, world, a map that is identical to the territory it represents.
